DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 3 is objected to because of the following informalities: In claim 3, line 3, replace "toroid." with --toroid,--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kulish et al. (US 6,433,494).

Re claim 1, Kulish discloses a multi-channel undulation induction accelerator (i.e., inductive undulative EH-accelerator) of charged particles, comprising:

an injector block (i.e., source 12) (Figs. 1-7; Col. 8, lines 52-54; Col. 9, lines 10-22 & 40-42);

a drive source (i.e., current source 20a, 20b) (Fig. 1; Col. 9, lines 53-56);

output systems (24) (Fig. 1; Col. 10, lines 20-24);

turning systems (i.e., steering assembly) (Figs. 13-15; Col. 8, lines 55-56; Col. 13, lines 56-67);

an induction acceleration block (i.e., at least two adjacent acceleration stages 116, 118), which is made in the form of at least two one-channel linear induction acceleration blocks (including those that are placed parallel with one to other), linked by means of the turning systems, each of which connects the output of one of the one-channel linear induction acceleration blocks with an input of another similar block, apart from those inputs which are connected with injectors, and those outputs from which accelerated particles are expressed (Figs. 8, 9, 16-24; Col: 13, line 17- Col. 14, line 14); and wherein at least one of the turning systems (i.e., steering assembly) is made in the form of a sequence of fragments of solenoid, which are joined with each other in such a manner that they form a working channel for the charged particle beam, which accomplish a 180° or less angle turn (Figs. 13-15; Col. 18, line 44- Col. 20, line 43).

Re claims 2-3, Kulish further discloses at least one of the fragments of solenoid is made in the form of a straight solenoid or a section of toroid (Figs. 13-15).

Re claim 4, Kulish further discloses at least one two-pole magnet system is placed in the space between the solenoids (Figs. 13-15).

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Kulish et al. (US Pub.2002/0109472); and Hiramoto et al. (US 6,580,084); also teach similar inventive subject matter.
